PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

AUTHORITY: 37 USC 404-412; 5 USC 2105-2106, 5561, 5564, 5701-5708, 5721-5730, 5742 and EO 9397, Nov. 1943
PRINCIPAL PURPOSE: To help implement the travel and transportation reimbursement system.
ROUTINE USE: By the accounting and finance office, to support a traveler's entitlement to a rate of per diem when available. Government quarters and/or mess are not used because their use would adversely affect performance of essential duties.
DISCLOSURE IS VOLUNTARY. However, if the individual does not procure and complete this form when it is applicable, he or she will receive a reduced per diem.
Disclosure of SSAN is voluntary.

INSTRUCTIONS

This form shows that use of Government quarters and/or mess or officers/enlisted open mess would have been detrimental to the mission. It cannot be used by members attending service schools at an installation of the uniformed services. Use DD Form 1351-5 to show non-availability of Government facilities or impracticability of use of available facilities.

1. Give a detailed explanation of conditions causing adverse effect for each day Government quarters are not used and for each Government meal not used.

2. Review and concurrence is required as shown on the face hereof and IAW DFAS-DER 7010-3

3. Orders issuing/approving official must sign this form as a basis for payment of full per diem (for justification see AFI 37-128).

4. These duties are examples of those which support non-use of available Government quarters and Government mess:

a. Pre or post-flight requirements.

b. Maintenance and security personnel required to remain with aircraft during meal periods.

c. Mandatory crew rest when meals would require interruption of at least 8 hours of sleep (justification must include beginning and ending hours of 8 hours' uninterrupted sleep.

d. Air crew or inspection team integrity when determined to be essential for mission accomplishment.

e. Time zone changes (members require orientation with local time schedules). This is limited to the first day after arrival at the TDY station. Otherwise, crew rest applies.
